

PESQUERA LA PORTADA S.A.

Ethics and Business Relations

All Business Partners of PT Aqua Farm Nusantara must meet, at a minimum, environmental and social indicators as defined in:

1. Ethics Policy

Fostering honest, responsible business relationships and respectful business relationships.

2. Respecting the Law

Commit to comply with all applicable regulations and laws including applicable environmental regulations, and encourage compliance with the law to be followed by all business partners

3. Human Rights

In conducting its business, it will respect human rights including no forced labor, bonded, compulsory labor or human trafficking, contract employees transparently, be given freedom to associate and bargain together, no discrimination, will not employ child and adolescent labor under 18 years old and provide permanent employment provided.

Implement applicable regulations and laws regarding legal wages, including minimum wages, overtime and maximum working hours.

4. Safety, Health and Environment

Provide a safe, decent, healthy working environment and accommodation for workers. Physical violence or discipline, threats of physical violence, sexual harassment or other harassment and verbal harassment or other forms of intimidation are prohibited. Disciplinary practices should respect the dignity and health of employees. In carrying out its operations, it will always maintain the company's environment and follow applicable regulations.

5. Complaint mechanism of workers and local communities

Offer a grievance system with workers and local communities or companies alike having the possibility to address the problem effectively

6. Quality, Security and Authenticity

The company produces products with quality, safety and authenticity standards and meets the requirements of quality, safety and authenticity in accordance with applicable regulations.

PESQUERA LA PORTADA S.A.

7. No Personal Interest

The company expects that there will be no personal interests in carrying out business or financial activities with business relations.

8. Contributing to maintaining social welfare

The company contributes to maintaining or improving the social and economic welfare of the local community. The company is aware of its impact on the surrounding community and requires constructive involvement.

9. Respect for indigenous rights, culture, and territory

The company respects the rights, culture, and customary territories of indigenous peoples and indigenous peoples.

10. Water use

The company uses water responsibly

11. Waste management

handle waste including liquid waste responsibly

12. Energy consumption

Use energy responsibly and monitor Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions

13. Product characteristics

The company is transparent on product characteristics.

14. General Activities

The company in carrying out its business will never provide political or financial support to any party that will support the activities of a political party.

15. Business Integrity

The company in running its business does not accept or ask for goods and/or bribes in carrying out or maintaining business activities. No employee will give, offer and accept gifts in the form of goods or money that can be counted as bribes.

To business relations, any request or offer of bribery related to the delivery of goods or services must be rejected

PESQUERA LA PORTADA S.A.

16. Gift

The company or employees are not allowed to receive any gifts from business relationships, all gifts from business relationships will be donated to social agencies.

We, Pesquera La Portada S.A. understand, implement and socialize this Ethics and Business Relationship to all our Workers, Business Partners and Suppliers

Santiago, octubre 14 del 2024

Felipe Pulido J.

*Gerente de Administración y Finanzas
Pesquera La Portada S.A.*